School Report.

No. 1. Summer term of eight weeks, taught by Miss Eda L. Maxham. This was Miss Maxham's first attempt at teaching. The school made a good showing at its close, and we think with experience Miss Maxham will make a good teacher.

Winter term of fourteen weeks, taught by Miss Lizzie M. Bailey. Miss Bailey is an experienced and successful teacher.

No. 2. Summer term of eight weeks; fall term of fourteen weeks. Both terms were taught by Juna L. Paul. Miss Paul is one of our ambitious teachers and consequently, we had a good school.

No. 3. Summer term of eight weeks; fall term of fourteen weeks. Both terms were taught by Fannie Emery. These were Miss Emery's first schools. We think with experience she will make a fine teacher.

No. 4. This school was taught by Georgie C. Purington, both summer and winter. The summer school was a decided success; the winter school was larger and a very good school, but from a lack of co-operation of scholars and parents, the school was not quite up to the expectations of the teacher and school board.

No. 5. Summer term taught by Lottie H. Winham. This was Miss Winham's first experience in teaching, and she succeeded in gaining the confidence of her scholars.

Fall term of fourteen weeks, taught by Dora M. Pike. Miss Pike has been so long known as a teacher, that eulogy is unnecessary.

We are pleased to report that the past year has been a successful school year, and we wish to urge upon the parents and guardians of the scholars in town, the importance of having the scholars prompt at school and attentive to their duties while in the school room. If this can be done, and have the hearty co-operation of all interested in schools, much more can be accomplished than in the easy going way that some schools get into.

We also wish to urge upon our friends, and friends of education, the importance of raising more money for school purposes, and educating our scholars in our own town. Would it not be well to raise a sum of money above the expenditures of common schools, to support a high school in town? thereby giving a number an opportunity of an education that would not think it advisable to go from home to attend school. We hope every voter in town will consider this subject and give it their hearty co-operation, by voting a liberal sum for the support of our schools.
